

FREE Health & Safety Training Workshop for equestrian businesses

*Are you unsure about your Health & Safety responsibilities?
Do you want to reduce the risk of accidents at your premises?*

Local Councils are working in partnership with the Health & Safety Executive (HSE) and Kingston Maurward College to bring those in the equestrian industry a free health and safety training workshop at

Kingston Maurward College, Dorchester, DT2 8PX on 12 November 2009
10.15 - 10.30 am Registration

Welcome from the College
When the HSE Calls
The Local Authorities Role
Manual Handling
Demonstration of ATV & Machinery Safety
LUNCH
Presentation from the Police (Road Traffic Act) Talks by a Farrier, Vet and Karen Sinclair-Williams (BHS)
on best practice
Ridden Demonstrations by KMC Equine Department
Questions (all presenters)
CLOSE at 3.45 pm

British Horse Society, Farriers plus many other trade stands
FREE lunch & refreshments

To register

please e-mail Glenda Treneary at shads.glendatreneary@hse.gsi.gov.uk or call on

01752 276300

and ask for Glenda or Paul Webber

*Closing date for registration:
1 November 2009*

